“PROVINCIAL ELECTIONS ACT.”

WRIT OF ELECTION.

EDWARD THE EIGHTH, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, KING, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

To the Returning Officer of the Omineca Electoral District, in Our Province of British Columbia—GREETING.

WE COMMAND you that, notice of the time and place of election being duly given, you do cause election to be made, according to law, of a member to serve in the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia for the Omineca Electoral District, and that you do cause the nomination of candidates at such election to be held at the Government Office, Fort Fraser, in the said electoral district, on the eighth day of June, 1936, and do cause the name of such member, when so elected, to be certified to the Deputy Provincial Secretary, at the City of Victoria, on or before the twenty-seventh day of July next, being the return-day of this Our Writ, distinctly and openly under your seal duly endorsed upon this Our Writ.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent, under the Great Seal of Our Province of British Columbia. WITNESS: The Honourable ERIC WERGE HAMBER, Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Province of British Columbia, at Our Government House, this twelfth day of May, 1936.

By Command.

P. WALKER,

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

(3.) To acquire all necessary machinery and equipment for such manufacture of lumber, shingles, pulp, paper, and other timber products:

(4.) To carry on the business of merchants, carriers by land or water, ship-owners, wharfingers, warehousemen, scow-owners, barge-owners, lightermen, and forwarding agents, and to buy, sell, repair, build, charter, hire, and operate steamers, tugs, barges, ships, and other vessels, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, mails, merchandise, and freight of all kinds:

(5.) To avail itself of and to have, hold, exercise, use, and enjoy all rights, powers, privileges, advantages, priorities, and immunities created, provided, and conferred by the "Water Act" and any amendment thereof, and any and all other laws pertaining to the appropriation and use of waters for any and all purposes whatsoever:

(6.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and to apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purposes of light, heat, and power or any other purpose for which electricity may be applied; to acquire, construct, and operate waterworks, and to distribute, sell, supply, or use water or water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used; to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by acquiring, constructing, erecting, and operating any and all improvements of every sort whatsoever necessary for said purposes, including the diverting of the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels:

(7.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain electric, cable, or other tramways for the conveyance of passengers or freight:

(8.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain telegraph and telephone systems and lines:

(9.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and to do any and all things necessary to generate, distribute, and supply electricity to any person, firm, or corporation or municipality:

(10.) To establish, operate, and maintain stores, trading-posts, and to carry on a general mercantile business; to carry on the business of hotel and inn keepers:

(11.) To remove obstructions from any river, lake, creek, or stream, and to do all things necessary to make the same clear and fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, lumber, rafts, or crafts, and for such purposes to blast rocks, deepen channels, remove shoals or other impediments, or otherwise improve the navigability or floatability of any river, lake, creek, or stream:

(12.) To purchase, lease, take by licence or otherwise acquire, sell, deal with, use, and dispose of any lands, timber licences or limits, grants, concessions, leases, mill-sites, and any real or personal properties of every description, and to work, develop the resources of, and turn to account the same in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(13.) To construct, build, acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, maintain, improve, manage, operate, work, control, and superintend logging-railways, trainways, skidways, roads, wharves, bridges, docks, piers, booms, reservoirs, flumes, aqueducts, pipes, pipe-lines, and other works, apparatus, and conveniences which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the objects herein expressed:

(14.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, and operate any real and personal property, where-soever situated, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell or otherwise dispose of and turn to account all or any part of the same:

(15.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(16.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(17.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company, by the issue of shares of this Company or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(18.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(19.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, and sell stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company or any supreme, municipal, public or local board or authority:

(20.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares, or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(21.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or application which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(22.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's interest, and to obtain from any such Government or authority, or take over from other persons or companies possessed of the same, any rights, privileges, bonuses, or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(23.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary or desirable in connection with or to procure for the Company a legal recognition, domicile, and status in any colony, state, or territory in which any of its property, estate, effects, or rights may be situated or in which the Company may desire to carry on business, and to appoint local boards or committees, attorneys or agents, with such powers as the directors of the Company may determine, to represent the Company in any such colony, state, or territory:

(24.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, present or after acquired, including its uncalled capital:

(25.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(26.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(27.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital, or guaranteeing any debentures or other securities of the Company in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(28.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid either as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(29.) To do all such things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere:

(30.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

The Company adopts the powers conferred by section 22 of the "Companies Act" so far as the same are not inconsistent with the foregoing.

(h.) To buy, lease, hire, acquire, subdivide, become possessed of or entitled to, and to sell, mortgage, lease, let, or otherwise dispose of, real estate, foreshore with territorial water rights for fishing, foreshore rights, trawling rights and fishing rights and privileges, real and personal property, and patents or patent rights, or the right to the exclusive or qualified use of any machinery, appliances, process, receipt, or method of any description, whether patented or protected from general use by any authority or power whatsoever, machinery, warehouses, wharves, fishing-stations, and other buildings and easements in any part of Canada or in any part of the world which it may be necessary, profitable, useful, or convenient to so buy, lease, hire, acquire, or otherwise become possessed of or entitled to in pursuance or furtherance of or in connection with the business hereinbefore specified:

(i.) To acquire from the Dominion Government or the Government of any Province any concessions, licences, leases, rights, and privileges which may be found necessary or advisable for the attainment of the objects of the Company, or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on the Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority:

(j.) To construct or equip cold-storage plants, and to carry on the business of cold storage, and to harvest, buy, sell, and manufacture ice, wholesale and retail, and to deal generally in ice, both natural and artificial, and to utilize ice and other material for the purpose of cold storage:

(k.) To carry on business as dealers in ice, stone, sand, lime, tin, lumber, brick, dry-goods, groceries, and general merchants, both wholesale and retail and on commission, and to act as brokers in the buying and selling of the same, and to carry on the business of real estate, insurance, and transfer agents, warehousemen, butchers and meat-packers, and common carriers by land and water; and generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire, or may consider capable of being conveniently or advantageously carried on in connection with the powers herein contained; and in connection with the business of the Company, to establish branch factories, stores, agencies, depots, and other markets for the purchase and sale of any article dealt in by the Company:

(l.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water or by the lease or purchase of water records or water privileges:

(m.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and construct and operate works and supply and utilize water under the "Water Act" or any amendments thereof, or any other Act passed in substitution therefor or as an extension thereof:

(n.) To distribute, sell, supply, or use water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used:

(o.) To apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose for which electricity may be applied:

(p.) To render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by erecting dams, increasing the head of water in any existing body of water or extending the area thereof, diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels, laying or erecting any line of flume, pipe, or weir, and constructing any raceway, reservoir, aqueduct, weir, wheel, building, or other erection or work which may be required in connection with the improvements and use of the said water or water-power, or by altering, renewing, extending, improving, repairing, or maintaining any such works or any part thereof:

(q.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and in particular to construct and lay down, establish, fix, and carry out all necessary cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps, and works, and to generate, accumulate, distribute, sell, and supply electricity, and to light buildings, streets, docks, and places, both public and private:

(r.) To construct, operate, and maintain electrical works, power-houses, generating plant, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for generating electricity or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same, to be used by the Company or other persons or corporations contracting with the Company therefor, as a motive power, or for all or any of the purposes to which electricity or electric power derived from water may be applied, used, or acquired:

(s.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, securities, and any rights or privileges, fishing licences, or leases which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business, and in payment for same to allot shares of the Company, credited as such or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price thereof, or for any valuable considerations as from time to time may be determined:

(t.) To apply for any Act of Parliament or Legislature or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(u.) To acquire, register, and use any brands, patent rights, licences, and trade-marks or privileges of a like nature, and to grant licences thereunder, and to dispose of the same in whole or in part and at any time or times:

(v.) To pay for any assets or property, real or personal, or rights, privileges, permits, or licences acquired by the Company, either wholly or partly in shares or stock of the Company, either partly or fully paid up, or for any valuable considerations as from time to time may be determined:

(w.) To carry passengers and goods on any of the vessels, boats, scows, barges, and crafts of the Company between such places as the Company may from time to time determine, and to collect money for fares and freight for the carriage of such passengers and goods, and the doing of all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects of the Company:

(x.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses, or the objects therein specified, or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

(2.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire sawmills, shingle-mills, pulp-mills, paper-mills, and mills of any other description for the manufacture of lumber, shingles, pulp, paper, and other timber products:

(3.) To acquire all necessary machinery and equipment for such manufacture of lumber, shingles, pulp, paper, and other timber products:

(4.) To carry on the business of merchants, hotel and inn keepers, carriers by land or water, ship-owners, wharfingers, warehousemen, scow-owners, barge-owners, lightermen, and forwarding agents, and to buy, sell, repair, build, charter, hire, and operate steamers, tugs, barges, ships, and other vessels, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, mails, merchandise, and freight of all kinds:

(5.) To avail itself of and to have, hold, exercise, use, and enjoy all rights, powers, privileges, advantages, priorities, and immunities created, provided, and conferred by the "Water Act" and any amendment thereof, and any and all other laws pertaining to the appropriation and use of waters for any and all purposes whatsoever:

(6.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and to apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purposes of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose for which electricity may be applied; to acquire, construct, and operate waterworks and electrical works; and to distribute, sell, supply, or use electricity and water or water-power for mechanical, industrial, domestic, or any other purposes for which electricity, water, or other power may be supplied, sold, or used:

(7.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain electric, cable, or other tramways for the conveyance of passengers or freight:

(8.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain telegraph and telephone systems and lines:

(9.) To remove obstructions from any river, lake, creek, or stream, and to do all things necessary to make the same clear and fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, lumber, rafts, or crafts, and for such purposes to blast rocks, deepen channels, remove shoals or other impediments, or otherwise improve the navigability or floatability of any river, lake, creek, or stream:

(10.) To purchase, lease, take by licence, or otherwise acquire, sell, deal with, use, and dispose of any lands, timber licences or limits, grants, concessions, leases, mill-sites, and any real or personal properties of every description, and to work, develop the resources of, and turn to account the same in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(11.) To construct, build, acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, maintain, improve, manage, operate, work, control, and superintend logging-railways, tramways, skidways, roads, wharves, bridges, docks, piers, booms, reservoirs, flumes, aqueducts, pipes, pipe-lines, and other works, apparatus, and conveniences which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the objects herein expressed:

(12.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(13.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company by the issue of shares of this Company or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(14.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(15.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, and sell stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company or any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority:

(16.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(17.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations.

(18.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.
